The screenshot shows the Moodle course interface for 'Electronic Devices and Circuits'. The left sidebar contains navigation and administration menus. The main content area displays 'General Information' with a list of items including '1. Vision and Mission', '2. Electronic Devices and Circuits- Syllabus -SPPU', '3. PWS Time Table 2023-24', '4. List of recommended books', 'Question Paper April 2022', and 'Question Paper Oct 2022'. Below this, there are sections for 'Unit-4- PN Junction Diodes' with sub-sections for 'Modules 1', 'Modules 2', and 'Exercises'.

Topic wise Resource Material on Moodle

The screenshot displays a Moodle assessment submission record table. The table lists student details (First name, Surname, Email address), assessment status (Status, Started on, Completed), and a grid of scores for 13 questions (Q.1 to Q.13). The scores are represented by green checkmarks for correct answers and red 'X' marks for incorrect answers. The total score for each student is shown in the 'Grade' column.

Audit Report

Introduction: The academic audit was conducted in three phases across multiple departments, namely chemistry microbiology physics. The purpose of the audit was to evaluate the faculty's performance, teaching methodologies, and adherence to academic standards.

Phase I: Pre-Audit Preparation In the first phase, a comprehensive checklist was prepared outlining the key areas to be evaluated during the audit process. This checklist included criteria such as faculty credentials, teaching methodologies, course material, student feedback mechanisms, and research activities.

Phase II: On-Situ Evaluation During the second phase, on-site evaluations were conducted across all departments. The audit team thoroughly examined the course files, syllabi, teaching plans, assessment methods, and classroom interactions. On-Situ Evaluation for an academic audit and compile a comprehensive report that helps the institution enhance its academic quality and operational efficiency.

Phase III: Post-Audit Analysis and Recommendations In the final phase. The audit findings were analyzed, and a detailed report team report was prepared highlighting areas of strengths and areas needing improvement, recommendations were provided to enhance teaching quality and strengthen academic standards, Faculty development programs and workshops were suggested to upgrade teaching skills and incorporate innovative pedagogical practices.

Department-wise observations:

- 1. Chemistry Department: The faculty Showed strong subject knowledge, but there was a need to identify any missing or outdated equipment that may be necessary for effective teaching and research.
- 2. Microbiology Department: Faculty members showed proficiency in emerging technologies, but there was lack in diversity in teaching methodologies

3. Physics Department: The faculty showed proficiency in new development, but there was a requirement for updated course content to match industry standards.

Summary: The academic audit provided valuable insights into the strengths and areas needing improvement across a departments. It served as a catalyst for continuous improvement and quality enhancement in teaching. research and overall academic excellence. The recommendations outlined in the report will be instrumental in shaping the future direction of the departments and fostering a conducive learning environment for students. This summery report encapsulates the key findings and recommendations of the academic audit conducted across multiple departments, paving the way for ongoing enactment and excellence in academic endeavors.
